STEP 3
SHARE

In this final part of the Pass It On Challenge, it's time to actually share your faith story—online, in person, or both. If you don't feel ready to share with a crowd or group of people, that's okay! You'll have a few different ways to participate, so you can choose the option that feels right for you.

WHAT TO DO

- CHOOSE WHERE YOU'LL SHARE: Sharing your story can feel overwhelming, so it helps to keep it simple. Pick one of the prompts from your My Story handout as a foundation, and then decide how you want to share...
  - On social media: Share a video on your story, post a painting or drawing of your story, or post a photo of a key moment in your faith journey and write a caption about what it means to you.
  - In a group setting: Share your story with your small group or with a group of friends.
  - One-on-one: You can share your story with a friend, small group leader, or family member face-to-face.
- REHEARSE: Before sharing, practice! You can record yourself sharing it, write out your story a few times, or go over your story with a friend or small group leader if that helps you feel more confident.
- SHARE: Now it's time to actually share! Here's how you can keep the challenge going:
  - On social media: You can tag our ministry's account so we can celebrate with you and share this post with two or more friends to challenge them to share their stories.
  - In a group setting: If you share your story with your small group, you can encourage your friends in the group to do the same. You can then celebrate each other taking this step of sharing your stories.
  - One-on-one: If you choose to share privately, we'd love to check in with you afterward to see how it went. You can celebrate this step with your small groups and hear how your friends shared their own stories!
